3. Bucola

Knikerboker

On show: Light + Building, Frankfurt

An aluminium dome, with its divine and endless symmetry, meets and envelopes the starry and glittering sky from the last collection Buchi.

Under the dome vault, the light evenly spreads radiating the surrounding environment with colours ranging from white to black.

4. Float

Ladies & Gentlemen Studio

On show: London Design Fair

Float implores combinations of the least, most essential elements working in concert to intimately define space with light and form. All forms exist to support and serve the other to direct a soft glow and shadow into its surroundings. Available in standard configurations as well as custom commissions tailored to the spaces' needs.

5. Splice

Liqui

On show: INDEX Design, Dubai

The strong geometric lines of Splice make it very suitable for any modern interior and the bright colours are fresh and vibrant. Splice is also available in white or, if you prefer, a sophisticated black. In addition, there are various special editions including the alternative Willow Pattern print and several metal shades.

6. Siren

Precisoa Lighting

On show: Maison et Objet, Paris

Designed by internationally renowned Dima Loginoff, the three glass bells of the Siren pendant are layered to hide and reveal an enchanting combination of colours and textures, adding to the light's interest. Different illumination options mean there are always new aspects and reflections to discover.
